Dear Mr. Moore:

It was good to hear from you and to be reminded of the very happy occasion last November when you honored me by having me speak to that fine company of young people. It was an inspiration to meet them and to find effective proof of our free enterprise system and its ability to do the job. Even more inspiring was to find the product being sold -- the Bible and the spiritual quality that infused the entire undertaking.

I hope your program will long continue and I thank you for it.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan
