

To the Varsity Internship Program,

I would like to take time to write to you and thank you for allowing my son, Tommy, to work for Varsity for the past two summers. At first I did not want him to go. I thought after being away at school and the leaving almost immediately to go an unknown-far away-location to sell books was a terrible idea for a young man, especially my son. All I could imagine were the dangers involved. Finally I realized that I had to turn loose and trust the Lord would keep him safe.

Now I can truly say that I am very proud of Tommy for his accomplishment of selling for two summers and being in the Top 20 of the company. He has grown in confidence and maturity and independence. This summer he will be selling again and this time his brother will also be selling books for the company. My hope and prayer is that selling with the Varsity Company will help my younger son, Matthew, as much as it has helped Tommy.

To Glenn Ransom, thanks for the good influence you have made in the life of our son Tommy. Knowing you were his team leader helped me have peace of mind that first summer too. May the Lord continue to bless in your life and family. If any parent would like to call and ask about Varsity, I wouldn't mind talking to them.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Carolyn Tison

PS: As a parent, I had to give all of this to the Lord and trust Him. He never fails!
