

Dear Glenn,

My husband and I would like to thank you and the Varsity staff for the great impact you have had and have on our son Mike. Thank you also for the picture we received from the awards last year. Since we were unable to go because of my husband's work, it was nice to receive it. Thanks for thinking of us.

I can remember when Mike first told us about selling books for Varsity. I was not for the idea at all, but my husband being wiser than I said go for it and see what happens.

On the third day the Lord opened up a trailer for him and the other boys on his team, which was a "Praise". They did not have to pay rent only pay the utilities that they used. The people that owned the trailer lived next door so if the boys had a problem they were close, they even had the boys over for a meal once in a while. The Lord was good because money was tight in the beginning, but He always provided.

Mike grew spiritually as well as growing up some and being responsible for himself. He sold a lot of Open Bibles and got to know the Bible better. He even was able to talk to a man about the Lord and lead him on the right path. "Praise the Lord" - isn't this what it is all about!

We very much appreciated the weekly reports that were sent to us. That helped us keep up with Mike's progress, his ups and downs. Then we would know how to encourage him and help build him up and keep him focused.

We also would like to thank the Varsity Internship Program for sending us information Mike's first year. This information got us familiar with the program and made me feel more at ease before Mike ventured out into the big world of sales.

As parents we were very pleased with Mike's progress. It was tough work and long days but worth it. He liked it so well he sold books this past year also. The money he received from his sales has helped him buy a car and pay for his part of the schooling he is receiving. It is slowly teaching him how to handle money, because if you work that hard for something you don't want to throw it away.

We are glad Mike's plans to participate in the Varsity Internship Program next summer also; it is helping him set his goals more clearly. The unity that Varsity has is like a family which is nice when he's away from home.

Thanks for what this program stands for, may the Lord bless it richly.

Sincerely,
Dave & Ginny Wall
